Dear Ms. Cotton:

In response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment (37 CFR 1.121), we enclose herewith a copy of the Amendment A, originally filed July 8, 2003, with the changes to the specification underlined as to new wording, and deletions of prior wording, as required. We would note, however, that we interpreted the new amendment format to state that only the new paragraphs (with deletions and additions) were to be written in the current format without deletions/additions shown.

We trust this will now place Amendment A, in proper order.

Cordially,

RINES AND RINES
